welcome to absolute group

Absolute Group is made up of a dedicated team of creative designers and personnel offering bespoke graphic design solutions. We are located in the heart of Leeds City Centre, working with clients throughout the UK. We do pretty much everything imaginable in the exciting world of creative print, but our main business is bringing your brand to life in fresh, thought provoking ways. As well as our design and print services, we offer video production, event management, photography and multimedia. Turn the page to find out what Absolute Group can do for you...

creative design and artwork

Our in-house studio designers can help you to change an idea into a design concept. Whatever you require, our team are available to guide and assist you in creating the perfect visual proof. We take in to consideration your comments throughout the process whilst offering alternative solutions where required. Whats more, Absolute group specialise in design and print setup, so you will always receive high quality artwork combined with luxury printed media.

branding and corporate identity

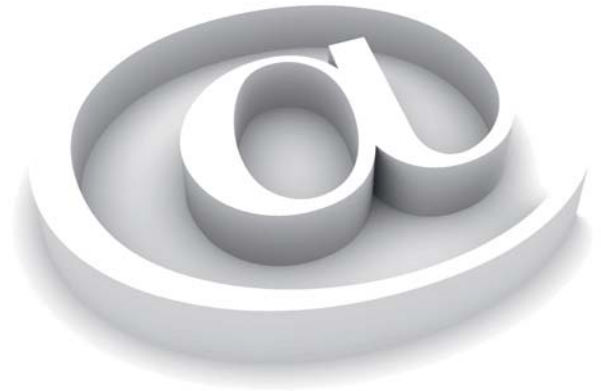

A strong brand identity is the most potent weapon in a company's arsenal. The task is to create a brand which is distinctive, timeless and therefore extremely powerful. An unforgettable brand is one that clearly differentiated from their competitors. A brand Identity not only has to leave a lasting impression, it also has to be flexible enough to grow over time.

web design and multimedia

A well designed website could make all the difference between winning new business or people looking elsewhere. Design is very important but don't forget navigation and functionality. A website that is fast, accessible and user friendly is essential for taking your business forward and creating new opportunities. We offer the full package – from the initial concept ideas through to making the website live and in the public domain.

the absolute eflyer promotion

If you are looking for a media that is fast and gets an instant message to your customer base – why not consider an Absolute eflyer! We can design and send eflyers that can be with your clients in a matter of seconds. Check out our online gallery for websites & eflyers that we have already successfully launched. large format display graphics

Get your company name or brand identity out there using large format displays and signage! Large format displays are the perfect media for marketing, advertising or transforming an environment (internal or external). We specialise in a whole range of large format display – vinyl banners & cut outs, Foamex banners, window graphics, pop up displays and inserts, posters and signage.

digital and lithographic printing

Absolute group are firmly established as a leading specialist in providing digital and litho printing. Our print services allow us to offer an extensive range of papers and quantities which include shorter digital runs and much greater litho runs. We pride ourselves on the quality of both our digital and litho print services.
